2025 AGS MATCHPLAY KNOCKOUT

For those who are not familiar with this competition or the format, it is a series of rounds of one-on-one knockout matches played over 18 holes, where the player who wins the most holes proceeds to the next round, eventually coming down to two players in the final match.

Players knocked out in the first round automatically enter into the Match Play Plate Competition, so all participants play at least two matches.

In keeping with the new AGS calendar, the target will be to conclude the completion by November 2025. As last saison, when you register, you will select for a standard AGS event: 15 €, except when you are a Ugolff 7/7 member where you select 0€.

When the registration period will be over you will receive a Green Fee for Téoula Golf Course weekend to play your 1st round of matchplay; then organize your tee-off time with your opponent to play your 1st round.

So if you would like to participate in the 2025 Match Play Competition please register on ExtraClub website by the 28th February 2025 and we will set up the first round and issue the competition guidelines.

If you have any question please feel free to contact: olivier.cleau@laposte.net

THIS MONTH'S GOLFING TIP

One way to practice your putting alignment and stroke is to place two clubs (or sticks) on the ground parallel to one another and just far apart to accommodate the putter head.

You are aligned correctly if your putter is square to the clubs (or sticks) to the hole. Take the putter head back, and through along the line of the clubs (or sticks) on the ground.

TURKEY TROT Seilh Yellow, 14th Dec

The penultimate AGS event of the 2024 (the final one being the seniors competition taking place the Tuesday after) took place at its usual venue, Seilh Yellow, where 36 golfers battled for the traditional Turkey, well it is said turkey, This year the first prize was a Capon so maybe it should be called “Capon Trot”! There were more players this year, which was nice see and the organiser miscalculated the wine and food on the first tee. Next year he must be more prudent.

We were lucky with the weather and only the tail enters were submitted to some rain, probably because there was a little slow play!! It was interesting to see that a few golfers forsook the putter, relying on putting with their hybrid which proved relatively successful it was understood. There was no change to the rules: up to 2 drinks allowed on the holes enabled players to take off the same number of strokes, a Mulligan, and a 1 metre length of string that could be used anywhere on the course to cancel a shot. Finally, the green of the 5th hole was not used, as from the depart from the 5th, the green was the 6th. This year the par was made a 6. Something to remember for next year.

The winning score was an impressive 42 points, which probably goes to show the 14 clubs are not necessarily the formula for good scoring!! The Dufour family are taking the Turkey Trot by storm, Antoine won last year, but not wanting to be outdone, father Matthieu decided to take the crown this year, so can the Dufour winning streak be broken next year, we will see. Romain Magnan came second, just losing on the countback with Andy Cheng third, beating Stephane Lacour on the countback.

The organiser would like to thank Mike, Lindsey and Paul for helping with the cards

SENIOR'S DAY , La Ramée, 17th Dec

As usual, the seniors complete the AGS yearly calendar of competitions, this year being played at La Ramée. 33 seniors did battle with the course but what a day we had. Beautiful sunshine and the course was relatively dry for the time of the year. However, the cold and little role on the ball made the course play long which is possibly the reason the scores were not so high.

Congratulations to Jean Marc Rousseau with a winning score of 35 points, closely followed by Guenael Jouannic. Third was Ludovic Debanne.

NET results 33 players
1	JOUANNIC, Guenael (31,4)	35pts
