CHALLENGE TOUR: A CHANCE FOR HIGH HANDICAPS

We would like to remind that the monthly challenge tour is mainly dedicated to players with high handicap (above 36) who wish to get used of competitions and who wish to improve their index.
It is a very friendly and relaxed moment;
Don't be shy, come and join us: all players are more than welcome!

2025 AGS MATCHPLAY KNOCKOUT (reminder)

For those who are not familiar with this competition or the format, it is a series of rounds of one-on-one knockout matches played over 18 holes, where the player who wins the most holes proceeds to the next round, eventually coming down to two players in the final match.

Players knocked out in the first round automatically enter into the Match Play Plate Competition, so all participants play at least two matches.

In keeping with the new AGS calendar, the target will be to conclude the completion by November 2025.

As last season, when you register, you will select for a standard AGS event: 15 €, except when you are a Ugolff 7/7 member where you select 0€.

When the registration period will be over you will receive a Green Fee for Téoula Golf Course weekend to play your 1st round of matchplay; then organize your tee-off time with your opponent to play your 1st round.

So if you would like to participate in the 2025 Match Play Competition please register on ExtraClub website by the 28th February 2025 and we will set up the first round and issue the competition guidelines.

If you have any question please feel free to contact: olivier.cleau@laposte.net

THIS MONTH'S GOLFING TIP

There are two quick ways to check the grain of the green. If the grass on the green appears shiny, the grain is with you (and the ball will roll quicker). If it looks dull, the grain is against you (and the ball will travel slower). Also check the grass around the hole itself to see which way the grain is going.

AGS COMPETITIONS RESULTS

LADIES DAY/SENIOR’S DAY La Ramée , 28th Jan

For this first experience, all went well but there were only four Ladies playing and none of the Ladies were among the winners.

There was only one prize giving and we are going to continue like that so for the future Seniors/Ladies joint competitions. (Basically one competition and one prize giving for all) the grandfather

We had a reasonably good weather but we had to carry bags so quite difficult for all in general.

PITCH AND PUTT, Golf de Garonne, 1st Feb

The first round of the Pitch and Putt took place on Saturday 1st February. The weather was very kind, although a little chilly, there was glorious sunshine. This was obviously due to Mike Jones taking over from Frank Schmidt as master of ceremonies!! Finally, 26 golfers did battle with the course in 3 divisions. The 1st division saw three golfers on level par, Frank Schreiber final winning on the countback from Mike Jones and Philippe Bisoffi. Christophe Brodin, also had a level par score winning the second division, with Lindsey Walker beating Cedric Combe and Helen Auzeric on the countback at 2 over par. A commendable 3 over for Jean-Paul Vaudon, saw him taking the first prize in the third division.
